

If you have friends visiting you, or if you are going away on a visit, please drop us a note to that effect.

Henry P. Chenoweth is home for a few days.

Senator Garrett S. Wall is home from Frankfort.

Colonel E. A. Robinson reached home last night from West Virginia.

Brother Cassidy of The Vandalburg Sun was in this city morning and paid The Leader a pleasant call.

Rev. Father G. C. Bealer returned last night from Cincinnati, where he attended the Columbian banquet given by the alumni of St. Xavier College.

CAMPAIGN TIMES IN GEORGIA.

Campaign times in Georgia—their times for me? Wish they'd last forever—good as good can be! Money—it's just plentiful, dollars bright as a new, And if you walk a hundred yards you strike a barbecue!

Campaign times in Georgia—best you ever known, Candidates 'a-sleepin' in the middle of the road;

Visit the people, speak at the school—Gotta 'straw to carry on a mortgage and a mile.

—Atlanta Constitution.

This has been strictly a Columbus week all over the country.

The Prohibitionists held a mass meeting at Covington last night.

The largest Court Day crowd of the year was at Mt. Olivet last Monday.

The Kentucky Cooper Works were slightly damaged by fire at Lexington.

All indications point to a Republican tidal wave which will spread all over the land.

SAM SMALL says he will be elected to Congress this fall on the Prohibition ticket.

Thursday was the thirty-ninth anniversary of the marriage of President and Mrs. Harrison.

It looks as if a stop was about to be put to the disgraceful matrimonial traffic at Aberdeen.

JOHN A. DEANE, politician at Harrodsburg, was found dead on the street; cause heart disease.

The factory of the Bowling Green State Company was destroyed by fire. The insurance, $2,000, does not cover the loss.

According to a calculation published in a London paper, the entire population of the world could stand on a field ten miles square.

Hon. JOHN P. McCARTHY and Judge Goodpastor of Bath county will have a joint debate on political questions at Owingsville next Monday.

A P. BULLOCK died at his home near Orangeburg night before last. He had been ill for some time. The funeral will occur this morning at 10 o'clock.

ROSS SKAGGS, who hails from Kentucky, is the biggest man in America. He weighs 331 pounds and is six feet eight inches tall. He is only 31 years old.

A DECEASED has been appointed for the People's Bank of Middleborough, which failed a few days ago. The liabilities are $28,000, with nominal assets of $78,000.

SENATOR J. C. BLACKBURN will address the Democrats of Macon county at the Courthouse to-night. He will be the guest of Major T. J. Chenoweth to-morrow.

The report that the Cleveland claim at Gray Gables was for sale is officially denied. Mr. Cleveland doubtless feels that he will need the property for his own use.

The General Merchandise and Trading Company and The General Land and Improvement Company have filed articles of incorporation at Covington with capital stocks of $50,000 each.

A VOTE for Grover Cleveland is a vote for Adlai E. Stevenson, who fought the Union Army in the rear during the war. Veteran soldiers should have nothing to do with either of them.

THERE is one man who fails to entree over the glowing predictions of Cleveland's victory which go out daily from Chairman Harritt's rainbow factory. The gentleman's name is Cleveland.

Mrs. KATH H. GIOVANNOLI, who formerly resided in this city, died one day this week at Danville after a protracted illness. She leaves five children. Her son, Harry Giovanni, is now connected with The Danville Advocate.

WILLIAM BOYCE, the Cincinnati baby murderer, was taken to the Ohio Penitentiary yesterday to begin his life sentence. The laws in that state may be a little lenient as enforced, but that cowardly brute would have been hung in Kentucky.

FIRST YEAR.

STEAMBOAT MATTERS.

WHAT IS GOING ON ABOARD THE BEAUTIFUL OHIO RIVER.

Delighted Gathered on Shore and Stream by The Leader's Weather-Beaten Old Tar and Piled Up Ready For Use.

The river has not changed materially in the last twenty-four hours.

The M. P. Wells still manages to get through to Cincinnati and return. The clouds gather now and then but as yet have proceeded to do nothing further than look like rain.

Navigation on the Tennessee river has been entirely suspended but the work of improving the channel is going rapidly on.

Several more boats which have struggled along with sandbars then gave up the fight and went to the bank at Cincinnati yesterday and day before.

The Sentinel is the name of a new Democratic paper to be started at Irvine by E. C. & J. B. Park.

The funeral of Miss Lizzie Newman Cox took place from the family residence at 10 o'clock this morning.

CHOLERA and Columbus will generously allow two weeks to the Presidential campaign, beginning next Monday.

A very destructive fire occurred at Madisonville. A large flouring mill, a tobacco factory and a grocery were burned. The total loss will reach $30,000, with about $10,000 insurance.

REMEMBER, THE LEADER prints "Help Wanted," "Lost," "Found," and similar notices not of a business character, free of charge. The only thing we require is that the copy be sent in before 9 o'clock on day of publication.

A BIG KRUPP gun will come to be on exhibition at the World's Fair. The murderous thing will illustrate the progress of civilization since those unhappy days when Cain had nothing but a common club to kill his brother with.

On North Fork, in Carter county, the residence of F. H. Rumm was destroyed by fire, burning to death two little children who had been locked in during their parents' absence. It is thought the fire was the work of an incendiary. A search is being made and if the firebug is caught he will be lynched.

PATRICK HARKINS and James Harkins, twins, who were born 76 years ago, have been sailors at Lexington for over 50 years. Thursday morning Patrick died. His brother was in good health, but the shock of his brother's death has caused him to become dangerously ill, and his recovery is not expected.

HON. J. R. SPURGEON of this city and Rev. J. F. Moreland of Cincinnati were the prominent speakers at the Emancipation celebration of the colored citizens at Distinct's Park on Thursday. Circumstances over which the others announced had no control prevented their presence. The meeting, however, was a grand success, and much credit is due Rev. Oliver Nelson and his assistant managers.

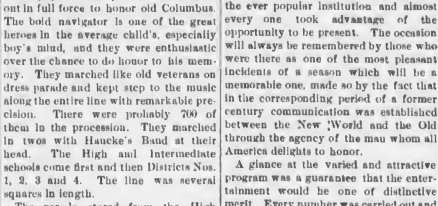

DAILY LEADER

MAYSVILLE, KY., SATURDAY, OCTOBER 22, 1902.

AMONG THE RAILROADS

THE STEEL HIGHWAYS THAT LEAD TO AND FROM MAYSVILLE.

Items of the Rail that Have Moved Up and Piled Into The Leader's Columns by a Thoroughly Competent Engineer.

The L. and N. earned $41,785 during the first week in October, an increase over last year of $9,310.

Work on the new L. and N. Depot has been begun at Cynthiana. It will be erected on the site of the old depot, and will be a handsome structure, it is said.

The Kentucky Union Railroad Company will begin the erection of shops at Lexington at once, the city having decided to issue bonds for $15,000 to pay for the site.

He's in the Soup Now. Felicity Tones.—Since he assumed the toga of the late Ensign Beasley, Citizen Harrison Bradford of Aberdeen has married (nearly 100) spouses. Drummers are being employed to work up business as between that individual and his competitors, one of whom is only a mere boy. In the name of decency, and the sanctity of the marriage relation, isn't it time that the Presiding Attorney of that county was waking up and making an effort to crush the awful farce?

It Was Awful Fanny. The Bulletin is running a race with the funny papers. In its issue of yesterday it had a wonderful cork-and-bull advertisement for a local merchant, in whose store a section of the ceiling "took a tumble" and literally maimed the devil out of a Harrison lad, while a Cleveland girl, who was in the audience, escaped as safely as Mr. Cleveland did during the war. The application was so intensely funny that it nearly broke up a crap game in Sinc alley.

Maun Vowley Reorganized. During the absence of Governor Brown at Chicago, Lieutenant Governor M. C. Alford has been acting as Governor, and in place of the latter Hon. Garrett S. Wall of this city was called to preside over the Senate—a honor well conferred and one that will be appreciated by the Senator's many friends here. Yesterday the Legislature passed the Revenue and Corporation bills, substantially as they had passed originally, and they are again before the Governor for his action.
